

UP FRONT

- 14 Hawker Beechcraft's salvation may lie in Chinese initiative to develop business jets

THE WORLD

- 16 Belly landing of LOT 767-300ER leaves questions of why the landing gear and backup systems failed
- 16 Boeing CFO Bell to retire after 40-year career; successor and new controller selected

PROPULSION

- 28 Two new aircraft engine programs coming to light as China's propulsion industry increases in ambition
- 78 UTC takeover of Goodrich involves firms already working together to serve and challenge civil aviation

SPACE

- 32 Shenzhou 8 opens way for China's manned space program by connecting to the Tiangong 1 docking target the program are a production ramp-up and planning for the 787-9.

- 34 Boeing needs recycled shuttle infrastructure at KSC to wrap up space taxi business case
- 35 Institutions responsible for setting and financing European space programs to hash out priorities
- 38 NPP, the bridge satellite for weather- and climate-watchers, undergoing checkout after launch

DEFENSE

- 40 Germany's defense modernization cuts have industry worried about future technology programs
- 41 Prolonged delays in development of the F-35 are coming home to roost for Lockheed Martin

- 47 Indonesia moving toward signing a contract to upgrade its F-16s to the Block 52 standard

- 48 Israel tests Jericho ballistic missile and weighs how best to check Iran's nuclear weapons program

- 74 A400M test program progressing through its final year amid a surprisingly calm atmosphere

- 76 Researchers tout potential of new flight-control software to improve naval aviation

AEROSPACE BUSINESS

- 51 Finmeccanica spotlight on new CEO to boost market confidence as he unveils new corporate strategy

AIR TRANSPORT

- 52 Plans to keep stretched Boeing 787-9 to its revised schedule and weight may face delivery slide

66

54 Boeing bets on ambitious 787 production rate even though first 'clean' aircraft not due until next year

56 Boeing finalizes fan diameter for the 737 MAX, bolstering twin-jet's credibility vs. A320NEO

58 Qantas locks out workers, grounds its mainline fleet in moves to get labor panel to intervene in dispute

DUBAI AIR SHOW

60 Focus of Middle East planning increasingly turns to balance of power between Iran, gulf states

62 Analysts and experts believe there are still a lot of long-haul markets left for Emirates, Qatar and Etihad

66 Middle East aircraft orders expected to improve when airlines resume focusing on long-term plans

66 Efforts gaining traction to grow the use of regional aerospace suppliers and MRO firms

68 Dynamic Middle East MRO market is fueled by new partnerships and robust investments

70 Mubadala Aerospace has ability to fund customers' components to reduce balance-sheet expenses

AERONAUTICAL ENGINEERING

71 Demand for power and cooling in advanced fighters drives a new approach to systems engineering

ROTORCRAFT

81 Bigger players lead efforts to improve helicopter safety in offshore oil and gas support

EDITORIAL

86 OEMs need to rethink supply chain management and find ways to translate theory into operations

