

News

WEAPONS & EQUIPMENT

- 4 Airbus Helicopters launches HForce GWS
- 5 ONR takes twin track approach to CIIF FNC
- 6 ST Kinetics unveils Bronco New Generation tracked carrier design
- 10 NHSQ to further medical simulation
- 12 Singapore enhances army communications

MISSILES & ROCKETS

- 14 Harpoon Block II set for integration with Saudi F-15SA
- 15 IAI unveils new loitering systems
- 16 USN begins operational testing of JSOW C-1
- 18 Diehl confirms 2016 completion for LaGS
- 19 Elbit finalises GATR development

UNMANNED SYSTEMS

- 20 ST Kinetics unveils Jaeger UGV family
- 21 Russia shows anti-tank multicopter concept
- 22 USN hints at MUM-T capabilities for naval helos, rotary UASs
- 23 Karayel goes operational in Turkey

CYBER

- 24 DOT&E outlines cyber challenges
- 25 UK SDSR cyber focus outlined

Special reports

- 26 Status update: UK aircraft carrier progress
- 29 Swooping down: Seagull USV concept seeks to even up the undersea battle
- 32 RAAF moves to optimise C-130J training
- 34 SOF focus: 'Trident Juncture' stresses interoperability
- 36 United States seeks to terminate plutonium disposition plan
- 38 Belgium rolls out NH90 Caïman capability

Features

- 40 Wheeled armoured vehicles: Asia Pacific states roll out AFVs
- 45 Riverine resurgence: technology boosts brownwater operations
- 50 Hypersonic hustle: Global efforts raised to satisfy need for speed

EQUIPMENT PROFILE

- 54 Last-ditch defence: upgrades keep Phalanx fit for the fight

TECHNOLOGY REPORT

- 60 Power hungry: Supercomputers face a demanding future

PARTING SHOT

- 66 Finmeccanica Project Zero

On the cover

Cyber section

54

A Phalanx Block 1B close-in weapons system installed on board the guided-missile cruiser USS Cowpens (CG 63) is pictured here during a live firing against a towed air target. This month IDR examines the continued evolution of the Phalanx line

This month sees the introduction of International Defence Review's new Cyber section, which will explore the critical developments in cyber technologies, operations, programmes, and training.